Glossary of Terms and End-Notes

Grid	A "YES" in this column denotes application of the sentencing guidelines grid. A "NO" in this column indicates the sentencing guideline grid is not applicable, and an alternate penalty provision is provided.
Offense seriousness level	All offenses on the master crime list are ranked according to seriousness. For offenses to which the sentencing guidelines grid applies, the offense seriousness level of the governing offense determines the placement of the offender on the vertical axis. For all offenses, the offense seriousness level also represents the level to which a prior conviction is to be assigned for purposes of determining the criminal history group.
Notes	The following notes apply to certain offenses contained in the master crime list: Note A refers to offenses where the sentencing guidelines range exceeds the statutory maximum sentence in certain grid cells. In such circumstances, the sentencing guidelines range applies, except that no sentence imposed may exceed the statutory maximum. Note B refers to offenses where the statutory minimum sentence exceeds the sentencing guidelines range in certain grid cells. In such circumstances, it is not a departure from the sentencing guidelines for a judge to impose a sentence within the guideline range, nor is it a departure from the sentencing guidelines for a judge to impose the statutory maximum sentence. Note C refers to offenses with mandatory minimum sentences in violation of G.L. c. 94C. The sentencing guidelines for these offenses are set forth in the Sentencing Guide. Note D refers to certain firearms offenses and certain offenses pertaining to operating a motor vehicle or boat under the influence which may have mandatory minimum sentences. The sentencing guidelines for these offenses are set forth in the Sentencing Guide. Note E refers to certain other offenses which have mandatory minimum sentences. The sentencing guidelines for these offenses are set forth in the Sentencing Guide. Note F refers to certain offenses for which a sentence to an intermediate sanction constitutes a departure from the sentencing guidelines. Note G refers to staircased offenses. The staircase factors are described in the 8th column.

Offense seriousness level	All offenses on the master crime list are ranked according to seriousness. For offenses to which the sentencing guidelines grid applies, the offense seriousness level of the governing offense determines the placement of the offender on the vertical axis. For all offenses, the offense seriousness level also represents the level to which a prior conviction is to be assigned for purposes of determining the criminal history group.
Notes	The following notes apply to certain offenses contained in the master crime list: Note A refers to offenses where the sentencing guidelines range exceeds the statutory maximum sentence in certain grid cells. In such circumstances, the sentencing guidelines range applies, except that no sentence imposed may exceed the statutory maximum. Note B refers to offenses where the statutory minimum sentence exceeds the sentencing guidelines range in certain grid cells. In such circumstances, it is not a departure from the sentencing guidelines for a judge to impose a sentence within the guideline range, nor is it a departure from the sentencing guidelines for a judge to impose the statutory maximum sentence. Note C refers to offenses with mandatory minimum sentences in violation of G.L. c. 94C. The sentencing guidelines for these offenses are set forth in the Sentencing Guide. Note D refers to certain firearms offenses and certain offenses pertaining to operating a motor vehicle or boat under the influence which may have mandatory minimum sentences. The sentencing guidelines for these offenses are set forth in the Sentencing Guide. Note E refers to certain other offenses which have mandatory minimum sentences. The sentencing guidelines for these offenses are set forth in the Sentencing Guide. Note F refers to certain offenses for which a sentence to an intermediate sanction constitutes a departure from the sentencing guidelines. Note G refers to staircased offenses. The staircase factors are described in the 8th column.
